The Captain of the Adams Tells How He Met German Arrogance.

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—Commander R. P. Seavy of the United States steamer Adams, which arrived here from Samoa, via Honolulu, yesterday, in an interview to-day said:

"There was a great deal of commotion when I was in Apia. I went down there with all kinds of orders suited to a time of peace, but when the war broke out I threw orders to the wind. They would do in time of peace, but were not applicable to the condition of affairs then. When I saw Brandeis, the German minister leading 500 natives in support of Tamasese I wrote him a letter asking him to desist. I said: I am here to protect American citizens and American property, and I will not wait idly by and see you plunging the country into trouble when their lives and property may be destroyed. If you do not desist I shall take such measures to protect them as I deem the circumstances demand." He sent back word that no Americans or American property would be molested.

"In a little while, though, much the same tactics were repeated. There was a meeting of consuls aboard the German war ship Adler, and at the meeting I said to the Germans: 'Now, just let the natives fight it out between themselves.' Oh, no; they could not do that. They said they had proclaimed Tamasese King and they could not leave him now to fight it out alone. Then I said I would take a hand in this. 'If you persist in aiding Tamasese and fighting for him I will participate,' and I pulled the Adams in ahead of the Adler and would have done my part in the fray if the Germans had decided they must have it. I had made up my mind that the Adams could throw some shells too. At this they eased down and promised that it should be 'hands off.'"

Next there were notices posted by the Germans stating that the bridge over the river at Apia and separating all the back country where the natives were, would be taken up. I tore these notices off. I said there should be no demolition of bridges. Then I ordered my carpenters up the next morning and meantime, word having got out all around, scores of natives came to aid in repairing and maintaining the bridge. I also threw some marines ashore to protect it. It is not necessary to say that the bridge was not destroyed. The Adams left Samoa December 7, and was not present during the recent battle between the Germans and Mataafa's forces."

LEAVING THE K. OF L.

A Large Body of Pittsburg Workmen Tired of That Order.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—Much excitement was created in labor circles here to-day when it became known that Local Assembly No. 791, K. of L., composed of machinery constructors and blacksmiths—the latest assembly in this city, and from which the District Assembly No. 3 had been elected to withdraw from the Knights of Labor. To this end a meeting is called to be held next Saturday night. Investigation of the cause developed the following facts: The movement is national and affects all the machinists, blacksmiths, boiler-makers, pattern-makers and molders from New York to Chicago. Some time ago Local Assembly 791 left D. A. No. 3 and formed National Trades District No. 19, headquarters at Cleveland. Eighteen months ago this district had more than 20,000 members. Now there are not more than 8,000 members. When the members of the above assembly applied for a charter it was understood that the charter would include machinery constructors, molders, blacksmiths, pattern-makers and boiler-makers. When the charter was received it included only machinery constructors and blacksmiths. Repeated efforts failed to have this defect in the charter rectified and the charter committee became disgusted and reported to their master workman. That officer last week issued circulars to the 46 locals in D. A. No. 19 to hold meetings in their respective halls next Saturday and have the men form a solid phalanx to withdraw from the K. of L. in a body. It is the intention of the seceders to form what will be known as the Independent Order of Machinery Constructors of the United States. The order be will attached to the American Federation of Labor, but will be independent in the control of its members. They will join in the eight-hour movement in 1890. The loss of revenues to the Knights of Labor by this move will exceed $15,000 annually.

Ballard Items.

ED. TIMES.—Items are scarce this week, but as we met with success the first time we are encouraged, and will try again.

Judge Cole and Sam Price, each shipped a car load hogs to Kansas City last week, and judging from their looks must have met with a hard market.

We learn that the young men and boys are carrying on a debating society at Fairview school house. That is right, boys, learn to speak while you are young.

Mr. Frank Allison, of Shawnee has been very sick with pneumonia, but is improving now.

Loren and Daniel were seen going west last Sunday evening, a pretty cold evening but business was pressing we suppose.

Geo. Teeters who is attending the Allison school in Butler spent a few days at home last week attending the bedside of his sister Cora who was very sick.

We are glad to learn that our young friend Frank Crow, who is teaching the Maysburg school is giving entire satisfaction. Success to you Frank.

Miss Dora Price has been visiting Miss Clara Warford of Shawnee for some time but has returned home.

Died, Jan. 23 at his home in this township Mr. J. H. Beatty one of our most highly esteemed citizens, and his loss will be deeply felt by the community. He was buried at Johnstown with Masonic honors.

Our blacksmith Mr. Albert Chambers has moved to Johnstown and Ballard is left without a blacksmith again.

M. L. Embree, is going to move to Ballard and may be found at his office at all hours, on Pine street.

Any one having mules for sale will do well to call on W. B. Cole of Ballard.

Miss Annie Hays of Butler is visiting at her grandpa's, Mr. R. J. Andrews.

Miss Ella Bowden closed her school at Freezout last Friday. There was quite a number of visitors present.

Ballard is booming, now is the time to invest in town property, any one desiring information in regard to the same write to the undersigned. P. O. Box 504, Ballard, Mo. (Please enclose stamp for reply.) PETE.

THE OKLAHOMA BILL.

An Important Provision Which Has Been Overlooked.

Washington, February 4.—An important proviso of the Oklahoma bill passed by the house Friday which has so far escaped general attention is one reciting that nothing in the act organizing the territory shall be construed to authorize any person to enter upon or occupy any of the lands in the Cherokee outlet and Oklahoma proper, for settlement or otherwise, until after the Indian tribes and the commissioners provided for the bill have concluded an agreement to that effect. After the agreement has been made it shall be laid before the president, who is authorized and required to issue his proclamation declaring such relinquished lands open to settlement and fix the time from and after which such lands may be taken. It is provided that any persons who may enter upon any part of the land contrary to these provisions and prior to the time fixed by the president's proclamation shall not be permitted to make entry upon any land or lay any claim thereto in the territory. The legislative appropriation bill, as completed by the senate committee, increases the salary of the president's private secretary from $3,250 to $5,000.

Horrible Death of a Boy.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb.—The 6-year old son of Jacob Kroll died last night from hydrophobia. He was bitten seven weeks ago by a pet dog, and the symptoms of the disease began to develop last Friday. The feature of the case that attracted attention from the local physicians was the absence of the violent spasms usually attending such cases, which is regarded by them as singular.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

Until the skin was raw. Body covered with scales like spots of mortar. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

I am going to tell you of an extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies performed on me. About the first of April last I noticed some red pimples coming out all over my body but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scales gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease 15 months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for what the Cuticura Remedies have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's.
